“ Dear family of Alan Thompson: Please accept my sincere condolences and deepest sympathy on the loss of you're dear loved one. Death is such a tragedy for all of us, and when it touches us personally, it's sometimes difficult to find the comfort that we search for. Our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah, who is the God of all comfort, feels empathy for those who have felt the sting of death, and therefore promises to swallow up death forever and eliminate all pain and suffering. (Please read Revelation 21:4 and Isaiah 25:8) Jesus gave even more reason for hope at John 5:28,29 where he explains: "...all those in the memorial tombs...will come out..." As you read the above texts in you're Bible, may they give you hope and comfort, during this most difficult time. Again, my deepest sympathy. David Cowles

“ Me and Larry have such fond memories of those "younger" years with Alan, Claudette, and all of our friends. Alan never said an unkind word and always showed so much joy. Although many years have come and gone, those great memories will never go away. God bless all of you. Deb
