

Albert Cecil STILLWELL

October 22, 1920 - May 21, 2011

Albert Cecil Stillwell, born October 22, 1920, passed away May 21, 2011 at home with his children Jeffrey and Margaret Stillwell at his side. Al was the eldest of nine children and grew up in Sheboygan, Wisconsin. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1947 after serving in WWII, where he trained flight crews. He got married and moved his young family to California in 1951, where he owned and operated several businesses in the real estate industry before retiring to Carson City in 1991.

Al was a life long member of Kiwanis, a world traveler, and he enjoyed flying his own airplane.

He was preceded in death by his six siblings and by his wife Harriet. Al has five grandchildren and three great grandchildren. He will be remembered for his wisdom, generosity and practical nature.

“ Our deepest condolences to Al's family. Al was a wonderful man and a great Kiwanian, and Carson City was a better place because he lived here.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for your loss. There is a void that cannot be replaced. The life insurance we buy is really preparation for death. But the life insurance Jehovah God offers is the destroying of death itself and all the things we can think of that causes it. He will do this through His Kingdom that His Son Jesus Christ is King of. We can gain comfort now through the Bible. And in the very near future we will hold our love ones again. We all will live happy healthy lives forever in exquisite delight and in an abundance of peace here on earth.
