

Betty Nina Holmer Clark

March 15, 1924 - September 10, 2014

Betty Nina Holmer Clark passed away in Carson City on September 10th at the age of 90. She was born in American Falls, Idaho to Ernest R. Holmer and Vesta Draper. She grew up in Fallon, Nevada and Married Merlyn K. Scholz of Fallon who was killed in World War II. As an adult, she spent most of her life in the Reno-Sparks area moving to Carson City in 1997. She worked for many years, but spent most of her adult life as a homemaker. She enjoyed oil and water color painting, sewing, crocheting, reading and crossword puzzles. She especially loved spending time with her family and will be best remembered for her sense of humor, back scratches and warm hugs. She is preceded in death by her parents and her daughter, Marilyn Scholz. She is survived by her brother Dr. Ernest C. Holmer of Reno, her daughter Kendell Wilson (John) of Minden, grandchildren Marla Morris (Harold) of Minden, Erin Wilson (Amber Mann) of Sparks, Robert Wilson of Carson City, along with great-grandchildren Hunter, Harrison and Hayden Morris, Chloe Wilson, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

“ Betty Nina Holmer Clark

November 04, 2023 at 08:25 PM

“ Betty Nina Holmer Clark

November 01, 2023 at 12:58 PM

“ I would like to offer my condolences to Betty's loved ones. May Jehovah God help them to endure this difficult period. Psalms 34:18

www.jw.org

Michelle - September 18, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Betty was such a joy. I miss her dry sense of humor and bright smile. Over the years of doing her hair, I became quite fond of her. She will truly rest in peace.

Theresa Bachstadt - September 17, 2014 at 12:00 AM