

David Craig Romesburg

January 1, 1976 - November 17, 2018

David Craig Romesburg was born on January 1, 1976 in Reno Nevada. He lived with his father, Craig David Romesburg, his mother Debra Romesburg and his two twin sisters Maria Hurst and Cristal Cooper, in Carson City Nevada. David attended Carson High School and lettered in Wrestling. He was the top wrestler in his class. David moved from Carson City to Reno at the age of 18 and traveled with friends until he met his wife Veronica in 2004. David and Veronica married in September 22, 2006. David loved his family. Even though he may of been traveling or enjoying life, he never missed a holiday or his sisters birthdays, this was always a date he did not forget. David settled down in Carson City with his wife Veronica, his two step daughters, Katie Fletcher and Crystal Hanson and his granddaughter Natalia Lopez. David enjoyed being a "papa", his granddaughter was a part of his everyday life. David loved being with his wife Veronica and they enjoyed listening to music, hanging out with friends and family. He was in love with Heavy Metal music, he couldn't go a day without listening to his music, this was a big big part of his life. He also enjoyed watching Michigan State College Football with his father in law Keith Fletcher. David spent the last few years just taking care of his beautiful wife Veronica and granddaughter. They where together every minute of every day. There love was a love that only comes once in a lifetime and no one could of ever broke the bond between them. David is proceeded in death by his father Craig Romesburg, his grandfather, Robert Lawson, his uncle Kurt Romesburg, his aunt Kathy Davis, and his grandmother Caroline

Romesburg. David is survived by his loving beautiful wife, Veronica Romesburg, his mother Debra Romesburg, his twin sisters, Maria Hurst and Cristal Cooper, his grandmother Eleanor Lawson, his step-daughters Katie Fletcher and Crystal Hanson, his granddaughter Natalia Lopez, his brother in law Chris Cooper, his father in law Keith Fletcher, his nephews Kyle Hurst, Christian Cooper, Donald Hurst, Ryan Hurst, his niece Brianna Hurst, his Great Nephews, Aiden Hurst and Braxton Hurst, his uncles Raymond Lawson, Daniel Lawson, and Robert Lawson. He also had many extended family members, cousins, and friends.

David will always be remembered for his loving caring heart, his laugh that could fill up a room, his love for Heavy Metal music and his fun loving spirit. He was a friend to all that needed him and was never just a phone call away for a helping hand. He will be forever missed by so many. He left an imprint in your heart in whomever's life he touched. May you rest in peace and know that as we love you from here on earth, may you carry your love for us and watch over us from up above.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

DEC 1. 11:00 AM (PT)

Calvary Chapel Carson City
1635 E Clearview Drive
Carson City, NV 89701

Tribute Wall

“ David Craig Romesburg

November 04, 2023 at 08:25 PM

“ David Craig Romesburg

November 01, 2023 at 12:58 PM

“ David my second big brother, I still can't believe you are gone, but I know your dad needed you more and you are with my son and safe! I remember all the short jokes and family time. Guess the jokes on me shorty because you tower of me now 😊 Please watch over your wife and sisters they miss you more than you will ever know. Your wife treasured you and your love so please leave her extra special signs and watch over my boy for me. 💖🙏 Rest Easy big bro.

Misty Bowman-samra - January 01, 2019 at 01:22 PM

“ David my best memory of you was many years ago when you were a very small child and you would look up at me and put your arms up to be held.. Your hugs and smiles were so sweet.. Rest In Peace and tell all the family Hi from Aunt Skeeter

Norma Stone - November 26, 2018 at 11:42 PM