“ *Desiree-
After only knowing you for a year and talking to you just a few times, all I ever knew of you was happiness. I will ALWAYS remember you as upbeat, positive, happy, friendly and very chatty =] Your mom is extremely proud of you, and I know Tristan will be too. I'll never forget when you told me that you knew your little man was going to be strong and brave and he deserved a name that would fit such a profile. I will miss your goofy, loving personality. I know you continue to be the light for your family. May you keep watch over your family from heaven, and be that protective, spunky little guardian angel.*

“ Sue, We are so sorry to hear of the loss of your granddaughter. As our oldest daughter is just 20 yrs. old, it really hits home with us. Since Debbie lost her twin sister last year as well as her 28 yr. old nephew just 3 months later, we can only imagine how you must be feeling at the loss of such a young, beautiful person. I pray that God brings you and all of your family comfort during this difficult time. We will be praying for all of you!

“ My heart goes out to Desiree's family, friends and to Steven and her young son Tristan may he grow up to know what a wonderful person his Mother was. Along with the rest of the class of 2011, Desiree was a familiar face at my house, her smile will remain with me always.

“ Desiree, you were such a beautiful woman. You were always selfless and kind; you helped me during a time when I needed someone the most. You remained strong and always had a smile on your face when your son was facing his own battles; I pray he grows to learn what an amazing mother he had. Though I haven't seen you in almost a year, my heart aches at your loss. I keep thinking about you and your beautiful son, multiple times per day. You are truly an angel and are so deeply missed. Rest in peace, sweet girl.

“ Hey Des...I'm sorry for what has happened to you. I Knew you throughout Middle School and High School. We didn't really talk after High School except for the occasional message to see how your little boy was doing. He's going to be so handsome and he's going to know what a great mommy he had. I love you Desiree...more then I ever got the chance to tell you. Keep smiling up there, I bet you're one beautiful angel:)
