Hi I am Kendall's friend and I play with Kendall. Kendall told me all about Ella and I felt sad after because I know how it feels losing a friend. It's like losing somebody in your family. I hope Ella is always going to be by your guises side. it's OK to be sad because it's a natural disaster, and it wasn't Ella's fault God probably wanted to take her early, but I hope God blesses your family. and I hope that Kendall feels better because Ella is living in a better place now I just imagine all the hard emotions that you guys have gone through. I hope Ella goes through a better time now now that she's in heaven I hope God protect your family even though you guys aren't my family or friends I still love you guys, I'm sorry for your loss. Amen. 🏆🎯❤️✝️✝️💕
