

Jennie Rebecca Peters

June 24, 1930 - May 22, 2012

Jennie Rebecca Peters left this world on Tuesday, May 22, 2012. She was born June 24, 1930 in San Fernando, CA to Benjamin and Josephine Cardenas. She married Floyd Peters on April 5th, 1952 in Mountain View, CA. In the first few years of marriage, as the wife of a navy pilot, she and Floyd lived in California, Hawaii, Texas, and Kwajalein Islands before finally settling in Carson City in 1976. Jennie was an avid reader who liked to write her own creative stories. She loved quilting and had a passion for politics. Before Jennie left us, she was able to create unique quilts for each of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, including a great-grand child who will be born later this year. She will always be remembered by family and friends for her famous salsa and her tacos which are now proudly featured on the menu of her son Ben's and daughter-in-law Nan's restaurant in Prior Lake, MN to be enjoyed by all who visit. She was preceded in death by her husband, Floyd; son, Ivan; sisters, Dora and Josephine Cardenas; and a brother, Ben Cardenas. She is survived by brothers, Ruben and Mario Cardenas; sister, Annie Cornejo; daughters, Ida Levand; Shane Callanan (Alan); sons, Ben Peters (Nan); Victor Peters; and Andy Peters (Wendy); as well as by seven grandchildren, Kelly, Ryan, Jesse, Tera, Jessica, Lindsay, and Christine and six great-grandchildren Gabriel, Tristan, Angelica, Jacob, Julianna, and Joshua.

“ Jennie was like a second mom to me. She was so full of kindness, and such an interesting person to have a conversation with. She supported me through some tough times in my life, and will always hold a very special place in my heart.

I will miss her. Thank you for everything Jennie.
