“ Kyle this still is so unreal. You were the only guy I have ever loved & I wanted nothing more than to spend my life with you. If I could go back to that night & fix everything, I would. Please give me & everyone else the strength to go on, even though at the moment it doesn't seem plausible . They say its not goodbye, but only see you later... I knew from the first time I met you at Reds that you were going to change my life, & you did just that. I wish I could hold you one last time , just to know it was real . I love you with every inch of my heart , soul, & mind . Please stay with me & your family...especially in the next couple months. Wish you could have met Adrianna, but the day we leave the hospital she will already be wearing her Jordan's . I love you boo.. & always will.

“ Kyle,
I cannot believe you are really gone. It is not fair, why would God take someone who did and meant so much to others. He must need you for something very important. My heart feels a deep sadness, but smiles when i think about how we have all gained you as a guardian angel to help watch over us, protect us, and lead us down the right path. You will be missed dearly now and forever. I hope you hear me talkin to ya bud. Rest easy and I won't say good bye, i'll be seeing you.

“ To Kyle's mom - mother to mother ... I think about you everyday, even though I don't know you. Kyle, your son, was so good to me while he showed me how to become fit for a woman over 50 years of age. As a young man from a different generation than myself, he treated me with the utmost respect and I will never forget him for that. I loved his sense of humor, his laugh and the sparkle in his eyes. I can still hear him say "come on Yvonne, just one more.. you can do it". He cheered me on. I loved hearing his life story while we were training.. he's come a long way. I loved how curly his hair was when it grew out just a smidgen (little bit). I cry for you, with you and will never forget how good and respectful your son was to me. I will miss seeing him at fitness for 10 :"(. This candle is for you Kyle... we will meet again. Yvonne Silva -

“ Kyle, you were a close friend of Bobby's, right up till the day he passed, 2 years ago. You came to his memorial and spoke of such good, shared times. You managed to somehow make the room of grieving family and friends explode with laughter over shared memories the 2 of you had. As Bobby's mother, I thank you. My heart goes out to your family and I know that you are in Heaven. I know that Bobby was there to cushion your fall so you felt no pain. I pray for your family to find some kind of peace, eventually. May you now be resting in Gods House. God Bless you and all you were and did for Bobby. ~Aisha Anastasio-Williams

“ *I have many memories of Kyle. Some are from his high school wrestling days, he was absolutely amazing to watch, he was part of "the four horseman". Some are from times I'd run into him out in the town. I remember, the last few times I ran into him, he would dial his mom on his cell and hand me the phone to talk to her, to try convince her to come out dancing with us (I'm sure Pam did not appreciate those calls at 2AM, or whatever crazy hour we'd call, Lol) But my most fond memory is, seeing his freakishly adorable flirtatious smile and eyes greet me at gym. I would see him most everyday, he would always find time to come give me a hug or to just say hello. I'll miss that every time I go...I missed it today...from here on out, I will always cherish hugs, fore one never knows when it's going to be your last :(((
My heart goes out to him and his family. Junior, Carlos and I send our love. By all the comments I've heard and read and what I know of Kyle, he was very much loved in this world...he will be terribly missed...*

Love ya Kyle, RIP my friend, muah!!

“ To the Banko family,

I just returned from Laughlin, NV/Bullhead City, AZ and was shocked to find Kyle's obit.

I'm deeply saddened by your loss. I was very fond of Kyle going back to his days as a CHS wrestler.

We interacted a great deal at Fitness for 10. I was proud of his accomplishments despite adversity in his life.

I'm sorry I won't be able to attend his Celebration of Life Sat. in CC as I have a committment in Spanish Springs that morning.

My thoughts will be with you.

As a motorcyclist myself, can't help think of that old saying "Someday we may make a mistake we won't live to regret". Have done the same thing Kyle did on several occasions but will think twice going forward.

“ Kyle, I just want to say thank you for being a friend to me and my daughter Nicole. Once you found out I was Brett's mom and Nicole his sister, it was like we had always been friends. Nicole loves her big brother like no other, but she also thought of you as a big brother. You gave her sound advice and listened to a 15 year old girl when she needed someone to listen to her. For that, Nicole and I will always love you. I do not believe in good-byes so I will say until we meet again. RIP Kyle Banko.
