Loretta Irene Hallsworth

August 30, 1933 - October 20, 2018

Loretta (Lori) passed away October 20, 2018 with her three daughters and her brother at her side. Loretta had been ill for many years, but she passed peacefully at Carson Tahoe Acute Care Hospital.

Loretta was born to Floyd and Hazel Black in Oaktown, IN. The family moved to a farm in Rockwood, MI. Later, they moved to Seaside, OR, and then to Crescent City, CA, where Loretta graduated from high school. She married William L. Erickson, and raised three daughters. They moved to Carson City, NV in 1965.

Loretta was an accomplished oil painter. She loved painting, sewing dresses for her girls, crafts, animals, & above all her family & friends.

She leaves behind her 3 daughters, Dianne Williams, Leanne Jensen and Sharon Erickson, 5 grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren, brother Gilbert Black, and numerous nieces and nephews

Loretta had the ability to make everyone feel loved. She was a kind, gentle, caring & loving person. Her smile & laughter will be missed by all.

“ I have many fun memories of my Aunt Lori. Lori enjoyed going to movies and would often let me tag along. I also enjoyed hanging out by the pool with her talking about life. She had a young, fun spirit and I remember a lot of laughter. Our paddle boat ride and picnic at Pinecrest Lake in 1981 is a special memory I'll always cherish. Rest In Peace, sweet lady.

“ I met Lori when I was dating her younger brother in the late 1960's. She subsequently became my sister-in-law. Lori was always friendly and made others feel liked and welcome. She was a blessing in many ways to her family, and I am sure that positive memories of her will be a comfort during this time of loss.--Dawn Black
