“ *Hello. My name is Tom Chambers, from Los Angeles, CA. I grew up in Hancock Park, and was in the Boy Scouts in the 70's. One of my friends from Troop 175, was Michael Herlihy... I've been trying to contact him. I have a lot of photos from that time, that I've been scanning, and many include Michael. Not sure if this is the right person, but I'd love to know. I have very fond memories of good times with Michael on campouts and backpacking trips. Please forgive me if I'm mistaken... Bit if I'm correct, I would love to share some photos of him! My sincere condolences to the family...

“ Mike was a wonderful teacher and co-worker when I was at Sanyo. He always had something interesting going on. May memories of your time together give you strength as you mourn his loss.

Best regards,

Jerry Gray

“ Dear Catherine,

I was told about this website by Wayne Willson yesterday. Our sincere condolences to you and your family. Mike was a special friend, and the picture you selected was perfect, as he was very proud of his skydiving. May he rest in peace after such a valient struggle.
