

Otis Alvin Hicks

May 29, 1951 - August 22, 2022

Otis "Dad" Alvin Hicks Jr, 71, of Carson City, Nevada unfortunately didn't make it to 108, passed away August 22, 2022 after a long battle with COPD and congestive heart failure. He was preceded in death by his loving parents Otis and Dorothy Hicks. He left behind two sisters Betty (Leslie) Graves and Cinda (Darrel) Wooldridge, nine children Shawn, Jason (Jennifer), Dana, Louis, Amy, Dwight (Amanda), Justin, Brandon, and Shania. Sixteen grandchildren Madison, Sidney, Makayla, Brook, Vanessa, Justine, Evan H, Seth, Kaiden, Savannah, Keith, Rozallee, Evan S, Marilyn, Adison, and Henry, including all of his many adopted children.

Otis grew up in Delhi, Ca and attended Livingston High School. After school he enlisted in the Navy and served on the USS Ranger. He was stationed overseas and is a Vietnam Veteran. He moved to Washoe in 1989, then to Carson City Nevada. Throughout his life he was a welder, mechanic, carpenter, and breeder.

Otis shared his love of boonie crashing, nature, camping, guns, Budweiser, and all of his adventurous stories with his children.

Otis came up with an incredible cake recipe that he never got to try. We will be baking that soon to share with family, friends, and enemies.

Tribute Wall

“ Otis Alvin Hicks

November 04, 2023 at 08:25 PM

“ Otis Alvin Hicks

November 01, 2023 at 12:58 PM

“ My dad was an incredible man. He raised some amazing children. He will be forever missed. I love you dad. Wish it wasn't your time but it was. And we are all trying to come to the realization that you won't be here to talk crap anymore, or for us to have to almost yell at you to hear us.

Shania - August 29, 2022 at 03:51 PM

I will always cherish the moments visiting him and having laughs with him. He will forever be missed.

shelby young - August 29, 2022 at 08:49 PM