

Pamela Lee Ross

October 27, 1947 - June 19, 2020

Pamela Lee “Cordoni” Ross was born on October 27, 1947 in San Francisco, California to Helen Wells (Willis) and Reno Cordoni. She was the third child of 6 children, James Cordoni, Susan “Cordoni” Masters, Rena Cordoni, Donald Cordoni, and Joan Elizabeth Cordoni.

Pamela was the definition of a perfect mom to 5 amazing children. She was the beloved wife of Gerald Ross, Jr. for over 44 wonderful years. Pamela is survived by her children Michael Ross, Andrea Crenshaw, Tina Dryden, and Monica Sigala. Plus, many grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. Her Grandchildren include Hilary Collins, Jonathan Collins, Hannah Dryden, Jake Dryden, Timothy James Ross, Jack Crenshaw, Jr., Amanda Vanderpoel, and Aimee Vanderpoel. Her daughter Lois Sigala, an Angel, was waiting at Heaven's Gates for her.

Pamela was loved by many, she was the “Nonna” of her era, mom to many, grandma to many, a friend, and nurturer to all. She was full of life and love. All she wanted in life was to be a Wife, a Mommy, to raise happy, healthy, loving children, she accomplished that goal. We were all blessed by having her in our lives and the memory of her will forever be cherished.

And when I'm gone, know my soul is at rest, for I am amongst the ones who've gone before. Weep not for me, for here there is no pain, no sorrow, no worry, just love.

And when I'm gone, look to the heavens, listen to the music sung softly by the birds, watch the river flow gently by, for it is the essence of me.

And when I'm gone, feel the warmth of my healing touch, the comfort of the breeze that blows through the swaying trees, the hints of my scent faintly etched into your mind as they come wafting across your being.

And when I'm gone, know my time on earth was done, my dreams were fulfilled, my life was full, my memory will never leave and I will live on through the love I have with you.

And when I am gone...I will always be only a thought away...

“ My mom, Pamela Ross, was such a beautiful person, and not because she was my Mom. If I looked in from an outsider, I could see how kind spirited, generous and loving she was. She is missed dearly but I'm happy for her that she's no longer in pain or suffering. I'm also happy for her that she gets to be in the arms of past loved ones. I love and miss you so much, Mom, and always will! Monica

“ My sincere condolences to Uncle Gerry and family. Keeping you all in my prayers.

As a young girl growing up I spent a lot of time with my aunt Pam. I have so many memories with my beautiful aunt I couldn't begin to list them all. My most fondest memory I have with her we're all the time she took me to the city to see her Nonna and Uncle Ronnie. Boy did I eat, I could remember being so stuff that I would tell her I couldn't breathe. "She would always say oh honey don't worry just keep eating" 🤔 I barely could walk out to the car I was so so full. She has left my heart full of happy memories that I will cherish until I meet her again. Then we will start new ones. Thank you to my amazing Uncle G for always loving and taking care of her.

I will miss hearing her voice, her silly jokes, and bad ones, her infectious laugh, but most of all.... ~ HER ~

“ My condolences and prayers to the family.

Auntie Pam was and will always be such a beautiful person who loved everyone unconditionally.

She had the heart of an Angel and family was everything to her.

The one thing that pleased her most was hosting family and friends where she could cook, and spend time catching up and showering you with her love.

The photo here was taken in Mt. Charleston, just outside of Las Vegas. She came out for the birth of my grandson and her great nephew Wyatt. We had such a great day that day!

I captured her beautiful smile filled with happiness and joy.

She was truly my other Mom and she is truly missed and always loved.

Her legacy lives on with each and every one of us that carry such fun and beautiful memories of her.

Rest in Heavenly Peace and Love,

Deb and Ben Murillo
