

Randy Clarence SMITH

February 26, 1954 - March 31, 2011

Randy Clarence Smith, of Silver Springs, walked home with the Lord on March 31, 2011. Randy was born on Feb. 26, 1954, to Nina Nelson Smith and Jesse Smith in San Diego. He attended high school in Hawthorne, then moved on to join the Navy.

Randy was preceded in death by his mother Nina Nelson Smith and father Jesse Smith of Carson City. Randy is survived by three sons, Travis Smith and wife Jill of Reno, Heath Smith Proctor of Georgia, and Nathan Smith Proctor of Dayton; sister Sue Bird of Smith Valley; brother's Ray Smith of Dayton and Roland Smith and wife Mary of Silver Springs; grandchildren Ashlee Proctor of Dayton and Jakob Proctor of Carson City; and many friends.

Randy was an exceptional musician and loved all kinds of music, this being a passion he passed on to his sons. He was also an avid sports fan, another quality he passed on to his boys, his favorite teams consisting of the San Diego Padres and the San Diego Chargers. Randy was a loving father and his boy's biggest fan at any sporting events. Although parent's were not allowed on the sidelines of the game, he somehow always ended up down on the field rooting them on!

Randy will forever be missed and loved by all. Walk with the Lord; be proud and strong, for with us your memory will always live on.

Today we lay to rest an amazing, yet simple man although we were not ready it is part of the master plan We will say goodbye to the physical meaning but say hello again to the spiritual being Forever we will cherish the brief time we had with you we will always have the memories you are our Dad, that we knew Rest in peace, Dad for not today, but soon we will reunite as a family when we will once again be with you.
