

Robert (Bob) Emmett Danahy

March 29, 1929 - November 29, 2020

Bob passed away peacefully on November 29, 2020. He was preceded in death by his parents, Andrew Danahy of Sacramento, California and Alice Edith Winson of Berkley, California, as well as his son Mark Danahy and his companion of more than 25 years Velma Mote, both of Carson City, Nevada.

Bob was born in Merced, California growing up in the San Francisco Bay area and graduated from Berkley High school where he reveled in football. He then joined the US Army in September of 1946, he completed his training in Fort Benning, Georgia to be an Airborne Soldier, he did not see combat, but spent the remaining military time in occupied Japan. After leaving the service he worked the hospitality industry in the San Francisco Bay Area, Tahoe and Carson City.

Bob loved to golf, and watch sports either live or on TV. All that knew him will remember his wonderful laugh!

After retiring Bob and Velma traveled across the United States enjoying the sites from coast to coast. They had a lively group of Carson City friends who they spent many hours with solving life's problems at the Old Globe Saloon where they were known by their aliases of Ivy Picklestomper and Igor.

No public services will be held, but if you would like to say goodbye, raise a glass in their honor and remember the good times.
