“ My Aunt Sandie was like a second mother to me, especially for the first five years of my life. I was shocked to hear the news, considering where I was. Her uniqueness and kind, loving and caring heart will be missed by all who ever had the pleasure of knowing her. I miss the lipstick on my cheek after she kissed me, and her wild stories. I'll see you when I get there! I love you!!!

“ Condolences to her husband, children and grandchildren, her father (my cousin) Chris and her brothers Don and Doug.

I regret not having made a greater effort to get to know Sandra. She was a baby when I played with her older brothers.
