

Virginia Faye RITENOUR

August 27, 1932 - August 25, 2010

Faye Ritenour was born Virginia Faye Pierce on August 27th, 1932 in Caraway, Arkansas. She passed away peacefully on August 25th, 2010, surrounded by her family in Carson City, Nevada. She was 77.

She is survived by her husband, Bill Ritenour, three daughters; Christal Gardner, Glenda Crawford, Karen Case; one step-daughter, Betty Joanne Skinsky, and three brothers; Bud, Benny, Sam and one sister, Dorothy. She had seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Faye was a faithful believer in Jesus Christ and was very active in her church. She had a heart for service and recently volunteered her time to CASA, advocating for children in need.

Faye loved to camp and travel to her home away from home, Hawaii. She was a great bridge player and practical joker. She had enough shoes to open up her own chain of shoe stores. She loved the yearly WOWs (Weird Old Women) she had with her girls and their girls. She loved playing dominos (but cheated). Life was better when you were around her. She will be greatly missed.

There will be a funeral service Saturday, August 28th, 3:00 PM at the Autumn Funerals & Cremations, 1575 N. Lompa Lane, Carson City, NV.

Tribute Wall

“ Virginia Faye RITENOUR

November 04, 2023 at 08:25 PM

“ Virginia Faye RITENOUR

November 01, 2023 at 12:58 PM

“ I wrote a story on Faye and Bill preparing to hit the road for the Nevada Appeal and wondered tonight if they ever made the trip. In searching for Faye's Facebook was stunned to find her obituary.

She was such a neat, spirited lady. I enjoyed the short time I spent with the Ritenours, and Faye's candor and quick wit.

It breaks my heart to think she never made the trip. I'm so sorry.

F.T. Norton - September 11, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I am so sorry to hear about your Mother Christal. I only met her once when we went to her house for a minute. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.

Cynthia Elefante/Rene Ojeda - August 29, 2010 at 12:00 AM

KS

“ To my favorite Aunt who was like a mother to me as well, words can't express how wonderful you were to me growing up, making me go to church on Sundays whether I had proper clothes or not, she would say God don't care what you wear, to making me bake a cakes for the neighbor because I helped my self to coke bottles, to tell my mom to bring us over because her girls had chicken pocks, I love you Aunt Faye more than you ever knew, I hope your favorite niece Kathy

Kathy Case Seaters - August 29, 2010 at 12:00 AM

AB

“ We send our deepest heartfelt sympathy to the family for your loss of Faye. Yet at the same time we rejoice because we know she is now Home with Jesus and what a great day of rejoicing and happiness when you once again are reunited on the Other Side. In His love, Aaron and Dianne Baker

Aaron E. Baker - August 29, 2010 at 12:00 AM

CG

“ I have no idea what life will "look like" without my mom. She was my best friend. I lived next door to her so I don't know where I will go when I need advice on the material to upholster my furniture or what to use to get a certain stain out of my carpet or to find out what castor oil does to you or... I still needed her input everytime I bought a piece of furniture. She was my traveling buddy... but of course, with TOO MUCH LUGGAGE. We always argued about that because she would bring the largest piece of luggage she had but guess who had to carry it? I will miss her more than words can describe.

Christal Gardner - August 29, 2010 at 12:00 AM

VH

“ To Uncle Bill and all of Faye's family, I am so sorry for your tremendous loss. Her obituary spoke of a woman who was so loved, loved life, and had a wonderful sense of humor.

Valerie Ritenour Houck - August 28, 2010 at 12:00 AM