“ I'll always miss you dad. I wish you could've gotten help. I wish you could hold me right now and hug me. I wish I didn't lose you at the age of 12. I wish you could've seen me on my birthday. I'll visit you on your birthday. I'll make sure to bring you a chocolate bunny. Your favorite present of all.

“ Warren,

You left the world much too soon. You served a legal warrior at your former workplace by helping others who didn't know how to defend themselves. Wherever you are in the afterlife, you will always be very missed by friends and your loved ones. R.I.P. Skids!

“ Warren, or Skids as I called him was a great guy. He defended me and others like me from the excesses of our overlords at work and was damn good at it. He had a sense of humor you could shave with, he could match anybody wit for wit, he threw a great party and made a mean spiked egnog... Above all that he was my friend and I'll miss him greatly. RIP and cheers Skids....

“ R.I.P Warren. You will be missed. You were a great person and I had the pleasure of working along side of you for a few years. You always had a smile on your face and always put a smile on everyones face. Knew when someone needed a smile. My prayers are with your family as they are healing and getting through your loss. It will take time for them to heal but they know you are watching over them.
