“Dad, it's been 10yrs now since you've gone to be the Lord, yet I still mourn you. How I miss you and our jokes and always trying to out do it each other with a quick wit "Daddy don't leave me!" As we were at the grocery store you tried to embarrass me and I turned the tables. How funny that day was. I think of the time I brought home a homeless family on Thanksgiving and instead of being upset you were so awesome about the situation. I could go on and on. I just needed to talk to you if only for a few minutes. I love you and miss you terribly. Love Always your pookie.

Hi Dad, it's 3:30a another sleepless night for me. I am just laying here thinking about you and mom and all pur vacations and adventures we use to take. I remember that pop up camper we had do many fun times. I was looking at old photos that other day. As I sat there sobbing and then laughing cause at that moment it took me right back to that moment. Dad Thank you. You worked so hard your whole life to provide for us, I mean my mom, me, and my brother. I just wanna say thank you for teaching me what a hard work will do, and the kind of man I wanted for myself. Yes Jose and I are still married about to celebrate our 28yrs. Gosh Dad I wish you could see your grand kids you'd be happy to know you're a great grandpa 🤔bet you would feel old. I miss you so very much. Mushy mushy daddy. I love you. Love always your Pookie oh and how I would give anything for one of your bear hugs. I always felt so safe when you held me.
